

Employability Network
Presents:

A FREE Training Session for Front Line Workers

March 18th 2014 from 12:00 noon to 4:00pm
1500 Cumberland Street
Cornwall, Ontario, CANADA K6J 4K9
3 – Hour Long carousel style training sessions.

A FREE LUNCH will be provided by:
The Eastern Ontario Training Board

Ministry of Community Safety and Correctional Services

A brief presentation on the differences between:

- Probation
- Parole and
- Conditional sentences

This presentation will also examine how these issues and conditions may impact on work availability for clients.

Further information will be provided on how information can be shared between agencies.

We will be encouraging questions that may help to clarify our role and provide a better understanding of community supervision.

T.R. Leger School of Adult, Alternative and Continuing Education

Workshop will provide an overview of TR Leger services, whether the path for our student is to attain a high school diploma, upgrade for post-secondary requirements, increase skills for employment readiness; English literacy, or settlement planning to integrate into Canadian life. The topics the workshop will cover are:

- Credit program: PLAR and attaining an OSSD. What is the mature student?
- Non-Credit Program: ALEPP Adult Literacy Employment Preparation Program
- ESL English as a Second Language
- LINC Language Instruction to Newcomers to Canada
- Immigrant Services

The Eastern Ontario Training Board

As human Service Provider, we hear and see every day how our work impacts our clients. Statistics offer a different lens to examine the needs of our clients, our local economy and our service results.

This workshop from the EOTB uses a variety of data sources to offer a view of:

- The Changing Population in S, D & G
- A Growing Local Economy
- Transition of Employment Ontario Clients into Training and Employment.

Please RSVP to info@sdccornwall.ca or call 613-930-0211